

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Thursday 14th February 2019

The English Department has booked tickets for the year 11 students to see Macbeth (which is their set text) at the Marlowe Theatre

The National Theatre present
Macbeth

Sleep no more...

The ruined aftermath of a bloody civil war. Ruthlessly fighting to survive, the Macbeths are thrust towards the crown by forces of elemental darkness.

The National Theatre, creators of War Horse and The Curious Incident Of The Dog In The Night-Time, bring this epic and visually daring production of Shakespeare's most intense tragedy on a tour of the UK and Ireland immediately following a sold out run in London.

Directed by National Theatre Artistic Director Rufus Norris (Cabaret, London Road) and designed by Rae Smith (War Horse, This House) this new production propels Shakespeare's classic title into a post-apocalyptic world of anarchy and uncertainty.

We will be meeting in the foyer of the Marlowe Theatre at 7pm for the performance at 7:30 pm. Please collect your son from the foyer at 10:00pm.

We are unable to make a charge for this visit by law, but the visit could not go ahead without sufficient funds and so the voluntary contribution for this visit will be £15, the school has funds available to help any families who are in financial difficulties regarding school visits. Please write to the School's Bursar who will make the appropriate arrangements. You should write to the Bursar in any case if your family receives Job Seekers Allowance or Income support where special rules apply.
